After the preparation of the foregoing exhibits, the DPS announced that selected offices would be open on Saturdays for "Election identification certificates only..."

What it does not say on the screen that has to be used to get the Freer information is that none of the suggested locations for Freer are open on Saturdays.

As indicated in another exhibit, the only offices that are open are in the large urban areas.

Shortly after this exhibit was prepared the DPS opened some offices. As another exhibit indicates, these were open only in the large urban areas.

For LaGrange, this includes the two offices in Travis County. These are Austin-Pflugerville Mega Center, and Austin South.

The screenshot displays the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) website. The header features the DPS logo and the text "Texas Department of Public Safety" with the tagline "Courtesy ~ Service ~ Protection". Below the header is a navigation bar with links for "DPS HOME", "SERVICES", "EMPLOYMENT", and "ABOUT US". A search bar labeled "Search DPS" is located on the right side of the navigation bar.

The main content area is divided into two sections. On the left, under the heading "Driver License & ID Card", there is a list of links: "Driver License Home", "Renew", "Change Address", "Office Locations", "Mega Centers", and "Customer Help Center". A yellow sticky note is placed over this list, reading: "Election Identification Certificates (EIC) ONLY are available on Saturdays through 11/02/13 at select offices here".

On the right, the section is titled "Search for Driver License Office Online Scheduling". It contains the text: "Many offices offer online scheduling for driving tests customers to get in line online." and "To see if an office near you offers online scheduling, your city or county below. If online scheduling is available, the office listing will include a link to 'Schedule a driving test online' or 'Get in line online.'".

Below this text is a search form titled "Search By". It has three buttons: "Zip Code", "City", and "County". The "City" button is selected, and a text input field next to it contains the value "78945". A "Search" button is partially visible on the right.

At the bottom of the page, there is a banner that reads: "You may be able to skip the trip!"
